

Janet Natale is the Director of Music Ministries at Saint James the Apostle Church in Springfield New Jersey, where she directs three Children’s Choirs and the Adult Choir. A New Jersey native, she completed her musical training at the Hartt School of Music and is hailed as “a brilliant performer with lyric clarity and dramatic effect”. Ms. Natale serves on the Board of Directors of the Newark Chapter of the National Association of Pastoral Musicians. For many years she has been a principal faculty member for Cantor Training for the Dioceses of Newark and Patterson, N.J.

Ms. Natale comprises one-third of the concertizing “The Three Cantors” ensemble and sings with The Continuo Arts Foundation’s Civic Chorale. In addition to concert work, her roles of cantor and psalmist have led her to celebrations with His Holiness Pope John Paul II and in cathedrals around the world. Prolific in concert and solo appearances, Ms. Natale’s recent performances include the Pergolesi “Stabat Mater” and Handel’s “Messiah”.

Please note:

Cantors who would like to be critiqued and coached by Ms Natale should prepare a responsorial psalm from an upcoming Lenten liturgy. Please bring a copy for the accompanist.
